

Eagle Band Wins Third Nationally

Last Updated Friday, 14 April 2017

The Raleigh Christian Academy Eagle Band represented the state of North Carolina during the national fine arts festival during April 4-6 and was awarded third place.

The band, under the direction of Mr. Yoshi Nakamura, competed against schools from across the nation and garnered a third place finish after a flawless performance. Congratulations to Mr. Nakamura and the band on an outstanding year!