On May 2, Raleigh Christian Academy presented its annual yearbook celebrating 40 years of ministry to the community.

The 22-member staff was lauded for a job well done in an assembly that included the entire student body. The yearbook theme, "We Are One" was selected by the staff which began with fifty total theme ideas. "We Are One" portrays the student body at RCA, because as Christians, we truly are one in Christ. The RCA yearbook was dedicated this year to Mrs. Ruth Little, who came to the academy in 1983. She has taught and directed music, and now serves part time as RCA's guidance counselor and college advisor.
